

There should be more competition in Broadcasting. Far too many radio and TV stations are controlled by a single company, i.e. Clear Channel. This does not serve the public interest or trust. Corporate profits are dictating programming.